Discipling Nations Nov 05 2022 The power of the gospel to transform individual lives has been evident throughout New Testament history. But what of the darkness and poverty that enslave entire nations? Miller builds a powerful, convincing thesis that God's truth can free whole societies from deception and poverty. Excellent study of worldviews! Heart to Heart Nov 12 2020 Have you ever experienced the transforming love and power of God as He poured His grace into your heart? Have you ever experienced the cleansing, healing, and restoration of your heart and life? Have you ever experienced a passion for telling your story and sharing the news of God's transforming power with others? HEART to heart: A Discipleship and Mentoring Plan can help those with a heart to share God's love through these vital pursuits. Reaching out with God's love can be done as individuals or in small or large groups. The HEART to heart Plan offers Christian believers a set of guidelines for creating discipleship and mentoring programs in their churches or as outreaches that come under the authority of Jesus Christ and the local church. As the world becomes more evil and more threatening, the HEART to heart Plan can help set up places of support where people can come and get encouragement, love, prayer, and help in dealing with the issues of life. HEART to heart groups can also offer a demonstration of God's love in action: believers reach out, and God uses them to demonstrate His transforming power and love-that He has poured into their hearts by the Holy Spirit-to share with others. In the Great Commission in Matthew 28:19-20 NKJV, Jesus commands believers to "go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; (...)." The HEART to heart Plan provides believers with an opportunity to be used by Jesus to help others overcome broken hearts and lives through sharing God's word, their gifts and testimonies, and, most of all, love. "Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us." (Romans 5:5 NKJV)

Better with Christ Jun 27 2019 Where in your life do you want more peace, power, and joy? Jesus Christ is the source of all three, and I have designed this book to help you access what He is offering you by improving your relationship with Him. While this book can help anyone come closer to Jesus Christ, it is specifically designed to help those who already accept Christ and want to connect with Him more and understand His gospel better. This book is especially for those who feel like they are following Christ but are still struggling with addictions, sins, debts, broken relationships, confusion, doubts, fears, etc., and would love to access Christ's grace and guidance more fully. This book is a boot camp for the soul, but instead of bruises, you get blessings! Together we explore how... Surrendering to Christ is the ONLY viable solution to our personal and global problems right now and forever. Christ fights our battles on His terms and how His ways to solve our problems are always the best ways. Anything less than 100% commitment to Christ cannot produce the peace, power, and joy we crave. The quality and consistency of our connection with Christ are the roots of all our problems and all our solutions. Allowing Christ to change who we are at the deepest levels changes our behavior and life naturally. The way we follow Christ matters, and if we are doing it right, we can expect to feel more buoyant than burdened. True discipleship to Christ requires us to live by the same principles that guided Him in His discipleship to the Father and that He is much more concerned with our sincerity than our perfect performance. Faith is the first principle of following Christ and it is much more practical and understandable than most of us assume. Repentance is the second principle of following Christ and most of us have allowed Satan to misdirect our attention to ineffective ways of returning to Christ. We have fun busting His efforts wide open and seeing the glorious truth of repentance. Bringing others to Christ is not what most of us think it is. It can be a simple, beautiful, and natural process. There are countless specific ways to follow Christ in our daily lives, and we hyper-focus on 100 small and simple ways organized into a 30-day program to make it manageable and engaging. And SO MUCH MORE! After decades of attending church, reading scriptures regularly, and even choosing a career teaching Christ and His gospel, I assumed I was focused on Him enough, but I was wrong. At the end of 2019, I read a book that opened my eyes to what the scriptures were actually saying and transformed my relationship with Jesus Christ. When the COVID-19 pandemic struck, I was determined to study the scriptures and other resources more thoroughly than I had before. This intense search for truth and sincere dedication to living what I learned unlocked more balance and happiness than I had ever experienced. I wrote this book to share my favorite discoveries and save you time, effort, and pain by shortening your learning curve. Together, we reexamine our relationship with Jesus Christ in the light of His highest truths and then reorient that relationship with simple everyday practices. Feel free to use Amazon's "look inside" feature to preview the chapter headings and the beginning of the book to see how it feels to you. Who knows - you may be as surprised as I was to realize how much better your relationship with Christ can become and how much that can improve your life right now. Our world is in desperate need of peace, power, and joy right now. The only way we can save ourselves, our families, and our world is by choosing our Savior over everything else. Simply put, we are all better with Christ.

How can you build a relationship with someone, if you don't spend time with that person? Think about your most trusted, personal relationship today. It could be a spouse, family member or friend. Intimacy and trust happens because you've spent time together. You've endured trials together. You trust one another. You're comfortable in their presence, and you trust their judgment. Disciple Making in a Culture of Power, Comfort, and Fear Sep 22 2021 Speaking in and to a culture that worships power and comfort while cultivating fear as a manipulative tool, Matthew Dickerson offers a transformative alternative: authentic discipleship and disciple making. What does it mean to live as disciples of Christ, what would it look like to be transformed by the Holy Spirit, and how can we be open to that transformation? How can a follower of Christ live as salt and light in the midst of a power-hungry fear-mongering society? And how can we both teach and model that disciple life as we obey Christ's command to make disciples? In the tradition of spiritual theology and formation, Disciple Making in a Culture of Power, Comfort, and Fear draws deeply from Paul's Second Epistle to Timothy--viewed as a reflection on Jesus' great disciple-making commission--as well as on Dickerson's own experiences in disciple-making ministry on college campuses and his local church. Dickerson's writing is deeply informed by Scriptures, by the works of such important Christian thinkers, theologians, and writers as Eugene Peterson, John Stott, and Richard Foster, and also by the literature of C. S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien whose works he has been teaching and writing about for more than thirty years.

Lord, Disciple Me Feb 13 2021 Jesus commanded all of his disciples to "go and make disciples of all nations." This book dares you to examine how Jesus Himself made disciples. What is discipleship, according to Jesus? Can the church today possess the power of the early church? Does God still use His people to heal the sick? Are miracles and deliverance still part of Jesus' disciple making agenda? Richard Mull's honest account of his personal journey toward biblical discipleship presents a dilemma for twenty-first century believers: Will you adopt a system of belief that explains why we disciple differently than Jesus did, or admit that in spite of our education and experience, we may not be making disciples according to Jesus' teaching? God desires to take you on a journey much like that of Jesus' first disciples, who learned to do what Jesus was doing by observing Him in action and obeying what He taught. Lord, Disciple Me will challenge you to develop a biblical foundation for your journey. Jesus will provide the hand-on experience!

Discipline Is Destiny Oct 12 2020 The instant New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and USA Today Bestseller! In his New York Times bestselling book Courage is Calling, author Ryan Holiday made the Stoic case for a bold and brave life. In this much-anticipated second book of his Stoic Virtue series, Holiday celebrates the awesome power of self-discipline and those who have seized it. To master anything, one must first master themselves—one's emotions, one's thoughts, one's actions. Eisenhower famously said that freedom is really the opportunity to practice self-discipline. Cicero called the virtue of temperance the polish of life. Without boundaries and restraint, we risk not only failing to meet our full potential and jeopardizing what we have achieved, but we ensure misery and shame. In a world of temptation and excess, this ancient idea is more urgent than ever. In Discipline is Destiny, Holiday draws on the stories of historical figures we can emulate as pillars of self-discipline, including Lou Gehrig, Queen Elizabeth II, boxer Floyd Patterson, Marcus Aurelius and writer Toni Morrison, as well as the cautionary tales of Napoleon, F. Scott Fitzgerald and Babe Ruth. Through these engaging examples, Holiday teaches readers the power of self-discipline and balance, and cautions against the perils of extravagance and hedonism. At the heart of Stoicism are four simple virtues: courage, temperance, justice, and wisdom. Everything else, the Stoics believed, flows from them. Discipline is Destiny will guide readers down the path to self-mastery, upon which all the other virtues depend. Discipline is predictive. You cannot succeed without it. And if you lose it, you cannot help but bring yourself failure and unhappiness.

Walking, The Way Jun 19 2021 Walking, The Way is the inspiring true

testimony of a man who was obsessed with his own needs and desires for over 35 years. A survivor of childhood sexual, physical, psychological, and emotional abuse, he became consumed by sin. Immorality, idolatry, pride, bitterness, hatred, anger, and drugs and alcohol came incredibly close to destroying his life. Then, one day, everything changed. In the time it took to see death coming and not even have the chance to take a breath—never mind pray for forgiveness—the man was spared.

Awakened to how close he'd come to losing everything, including God, he was born again into a new life, and a new role as a disciple. In His mercy, God saved this man, delivered him from self-destruction and the surety of hell... all through His amazing Grace. A testament to the power and work of God the Holy Spirit, Walking the Way reveals the importance of faith and trust in the only true God of the Bible. Learn how forgiveness begins the healing process, and how God's Word is truly the only way to renew your mind. See how effectual prayer, done in awe of the amazing power of God and His love, is sustenance for the disciple, confirming one's belief while granting the ability and strength to face life's trials with confidence. Before it's too late, consider your life, your thoughts, your actions. Remember what's at risk—separation from Him, forever. Then ask yourself, "Am I born of the Spirit?"

The Power of Together Dec 02 2019 An Invitation to Deeper, More Joyful, and Rewarding Relationships with God and Others None of us is lovable all of the time. People are unreasonable, arguments flare, feelings are hurt. And no one can make us feel worse than those closest to us. It's easy to fall into the trap of closing ourselves off in order to protect ourselves, rather than opening ourselves up for relationship with each other. But think of who Jesus invited into his life and ministry. They weren't always lovable. Yet he modeled perfect love for us and showed how the mark of a spiritually mature believer was always love. In The Power of Together, pastor and author Jim Putman uncovers the core of true discipleship with an in-depth, biblical look at how Jesus always invited people into relationship with himself. He loved them with God's perfect love and, in the process, showed everyone around him that the act of following God is the act of extending and receiving love that endures all things.

Emotionally Healthy Discipleship Mar 05 2020 The global church is facing a discipleship crisis. Here is how we move forward. Pastors and church leaders want to see lives changed by the gospel. They work tirelessly to care for people, initiate new ministries, preach creatively, and keep up with trends. Sadly, much of this effort does not result in deeply changed disciples. Traditional discipleship strategies fail because they do not: Slow down people's lives so they can cultivate a deep, personal relationship with Jesus. Challenge the values of Western culture that have compromised the radical call to follow the crucified Jesus. Integrate sadness, loss, and vulnerability, leaving people defensive and easily triggered. Measure our spiritual maturity by how we are growing in our ability to love others. In Emotionally Healthy Discipleship, bestselling author Pete Scazzero lays out how to create an emotionally healthy culture and multiply deeply-changed people in every aspect of church life—including leadership and team development, marriage and single ministry, small groups, preaching, worship, youth and children's ministry, administration, and outreach. Complete with assessments and practical strategies, Emotionally Healthy Discipleship will help you move people to the beneath-the-surface discipleship that actually has the power to change the world.

The Power of Obedience Oct 31 2019 What does God require of you? Many Christians are asking this question, and looking for an answer that is biblically founded. You can find the answer in this book. In her previous book, God Still Speaks, Deborah Roeger outlined a sound basis for hearing from God, discerning His voice, and following Him more closely as we develop the habit of listening. In this first volume of her series "Lost in Translation," she studies biblical obedience. Rather than speaking of obedience as a list of duties, she presents it as a uniquely powerful way to live. This book is rooted in the stories of Scripture, especially of the Old Testament. From those roots the study unfolds a practical, life-changing approach to discipleship based on finding God's will and joyfully joining Him. Each chapter provides a key verse and a number of scriptural examples to follow as we seek to become more effective disciples. We do this not to earn God's favor, but to align with His will and to enjoy a life of peace and communion with the God who loves us. The book contains well researched word studies which link the lessons with specific key words in Scripture. Each word study provides helpful insight into how that word is used biblically and how it informs our discipleship. This book is intended for group study, but can also be read and studied individually. It is a resource for Christian education classes wanting to dig deeper into God's Word presented in the Bible.

Power Surge Oct 24 2021 A powerful plan to transform church members into impassioned disciples. Drawing on his experience at Prince of Peace, Foss makes the case for transforming congregations from a membership model to a discipleship model of church affiliation. The book begins with a careful analysis of recent patterns in church membership/demographics which argue for this paradigm shift. Subsequent chapters detail the unique leadership and organizational needs of a discipleship model; explore the building and maintaining of fundamental trust--in God and in His people--as the cornerstone of the model; and provide practical helps for assessing the present and strategies for moving into the future. Addressed to rostered and non-rostered professional and non-professional church leaders interested in transforming their churches into centers for discipleship and mission,

Power Surge makes the case for a dynamic, functional model of church affiliation that moves away from a membership model centered on prerogatives of membership to a discipleship model centered on the notion of Christian vocation/calling. It proposes a grace-centered, rather than legalistic, model of discipleship and builds a bridge through transferable principles between congregational mission mindedness and the individual Christian's life of faith. This book utilizes assessment tools and practical helps so that congregations can make the transition between membership and discipleship paradigms, as it draws on the experience of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church as a case study illustrating the principles of a discipleship model of church affiliation.

The Power of Confession Aug 29 2019 Confession is a word we have heard often but not truly had a biblical understanding of it. Confession has been associated with religion where we confess our sin or has been likened to a declaration. Brother Gery Malanda (Apostle and Leader of House Of Prayer For All Nations-Europe and Teacher on TBN's Voice of Healing UK) gives a biblical teaching on what is confession. He explores what the bible teaches on confession of sin and the power of the blood of Jesus in cleaning ALL sins. Brother Gery highlights the power of exposing the works of darkness by confessing our secret sin using biblical examples as well as sharing from his own personal experiences. Through the word of God, he demystifies what God meant in forgiving of sin. In this book, he presents the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross as a salvation package that provides for our salvation, healing, deliverance and prosperity. Finally, Brother Gery explores the importance of confessing the word of God in one's life highlighting it's advantages. The three components that are involved in a true confession and the power of the tongue in framing the world around you. Through this succinct
